

The Red Rabbit Racing Awards

are annual awards recognizing distinct achievement in 5 categories. My name is Robert Lenz and I will be your host for the evening.

(This is where you tell a couple of Horse racing Jokes or a historical anecdote with a horse racing theme)

(Then you sing a short song with a horse racing theme)

Now on to the awards!

Our First Award Category is in recognition of the year's

“Stupidest Ideas”

This award is for excellence in proposing the most “Ridiculous”, “Utterly Idiotic” and “Disturbingly Dumb” Suggestions. Each suggestion seems to be inexplicably stupider than the last one. Candidly, it is rare in the Johnson line, - but when it appears it is typically egregious.

Our Nominees Are:

Jean Gallo
Jeff Johnson
Peggy Lenz
Chris Block
Rick Johnson

And the Rabbit For “Stupidest Ideas” Goes To:

Rick Johnson

Our Next Award is for the

“Tartest Tongue”

This award is for excellence in Wittiness, Wise-Cracking, Arm-Chair Quarterbacking, and Hindsight Second Guessing.

It requires a refined sense of Humor, Verbal Agility, and measured amounts of Sarcasm. It is in-bred deep into any Johnson, making this the most competitive category of the evening.

Our Nominees Are:

Jean Gallo
Jeff Johnson
Peggy Lenz
Chris Block
Rick Johnson

And the Rabbit For “Tartest Tongue” Goes To:

Peggy Lenz

Our Next Award is in the category of

“Best Dreamer”

This award is for excellence in Dreaming. It is known by Frequent, Typically Absurd, Dream sequences which though they don't make sense, yet are hysterically funny.

Predominantly these dreams involve equestrian or equine racing themes and features creativity not normally found in the Johnson Lineage. Our Nominees Are:

Jean Gallo
Jeff Johnson
Peggy Lenz
Chris Block
Rick Johnson

And the Rabbit For “Best Dreamer” Goes To:

Jeff Johnson

It is now my honor to turn the stage over to another presenter where we will bestow the coveted
“Lucien Lauren Award”
for
Horsemen & Partnership Excellence

This award is not made annually, but only upon recognition of superior achievement in this category.
Could I call Kathy Johnson to the dais to confer the award to this years honoree
Carl errr I Mean
Steve Gallo!

Kathy If you would.....

Our Next Award Category is for

“Goofiest Question”

This category is for excellence in asking something unbelievably goofy. It is most apparent when an otherwise intelligent, gifted, educated sage, asks something so profoundly idiotic that everyone who has heard the exchange lowers their heads in stunned silence. Our Nominees are:

Jean Gallo
Jeff Johnson
Peggy Lenz
Chris Block
Rick Johnson

And the Rabbit For “Goofiest Question” Goes To:

Jean Gallo

Our Last Award Of The Evening is for

“Best Listener”

This category is for excellence in Listening. It requires skills in maintaining composure as you show no reaction to the blather of the naive, the ill-advised, and the just plain goofy.

Experts in this category can produce knowing smiles of agreement to Hare-brained suggestions that no one in Hell would ever actually do. This trait is found quite rarely – especially in the Johnson line. Our Nominees Are:

Jean Gallo
Jeff Johnson
Peggy Lenz
Chris Block
Rick Johnson

And the Rabbit For “Best Listener” Goes To:

Chris Block
